SICILY- THE JEWEL OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

A journey across this fascinating Mediterranean island, dominated by Mt Etna, an active volcano. Sicily is an island with an amazing history, a mixture of world civilisations and cultures, from the Byzantines, to the Greeks and Romans, the Normans, and through medieval times to today. In this presentation, view wonderful cathedral churches and buildings, where different cultures worked together to create masterpieces of art & history. See where Christians, Arabs and Muslims worked together to create some of the finest architecture of its type in the world.
